Mrs. Mat Barnhouse.
I'm still dying
to see that lucky husband of yours who's keeping you away from all of us. Be good to yourself and also mar. If you're still living this way I'll come buy to see you. Please forget that darling little idiot and our quaint west and all of course. Just think a whole year next year without her would be like

P. T. A.

The Rhythmettes consisting of Nancy Carr, Shirley Bosta, and Nancy Smith perform during a regular meeting of the P. T. A.

To the Seniors of Hampton High School our very best wishes for your future. We of the Parent-Teacher Association wish to thank you for the help you, other members of the student body and faculty have given us and for the pleasure we have had in working with you. We, in turn, hope we have been of some assistance to you.

As we go our separate ways, may I leave with you the thought so ably expressed in our Parent-Teacher prayer:

"Heavenly Father:
"Lead us in steadfastness and faith toward the solution of the great problems that confront our world today."

Sincerely,
MRS. WILLIAM R. ROWE
President

Officers — Mrs. John Englehard, Recording Secretary; Mrs. C. A. Kegley, Treasurer; Mrs. William R. Rowe, President; Mrs. Bruce L. VanderBoegh, Vice-president. Standing: Mrs. Albert Hutton, Historian; Mrs. Horace Hayes, Parliamentarian; Mrs. W. D. Smith, Corresponding Secretary.

CLUB

Willard Bauserman, Ben Wood, and Virginia Shaffer work on Lab experiment.

This year a new club has been added to Hampton High School which increases the knowledge of science, particularly Chemistry and Physics. It also offers an opportunity for students working alone or together to experiment and develop scientific projects. Interesting lectures are delivered by members of the Engineers Club, scientists from N.A.C.A. and other persons dealing with science. Many field trips are taken by the club to observe science in action.

Its chief aim is to be of service to our school, community and nation. By stimulating a greater interest in science and its study, we hope to encourage youth to make science their chosen career.

At rail: Carol Brizendine, Mary Lou Forrest, Dorothy Phillips, Patsy Anne Scott, Jimmy Davis, Clyde Glosson, Richard Murray, Franklin Gillis.

The A Cappella Choir, having long enjoyed a poularity in the local community, for excellent performance, enhanced its reputation, this year, with several outstanding concerts. The choir quickly mastered enough selections to present a concert early this season. In October, a trip to Richmond to sing for the Superintendents (VEA Convention) brought the choir statewide recognition. Upon their return the 33-voice group began rehearsing for a Christmas opera. Amahl and the Night Visitors was probably the most difficult opera attempted by any choir at Hampton High, and featured as soloists, Patsy Anne Scott, Nancy Savage, Clyde Glossom, Lloyd Everton, and Marvin Green. In addition to numerous singing engagements the A Cappella Choir participated in the spring concert, presenting a scene from grand opera.

MARCHING BAND

MR. T. T. LAWRENCE
Director

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Pictured is the 1956-57 Hampton High School Band of 86 members. The band this year won several honors, one of which was the Division One Rating for Class "A" Bands in Bristol, Tennessee, in October. This is the first time the Marching Band has ever participated in the Southeastern Band Festival, held in Bristol, and they made a good showing. The Hampton Band was the only one chosen from the Tidewater area, And it hopes to be selected again in the future.

The Marching Band also presents half-time shows, supreme for all home football games.

The Concert Band consists of 80 members of a high caliber. The Concert Band present concerts during Christmas for the Schools and community. They present two formal concerts for the public during the remainder of the year. The Concert Band is also responsible for the music at class days and also graduation.

The big red band is definitely a credit to Hampton High School.

COACH JOHN L. THOMAS

Student, Teacher, and Coach

1928 - 1956

H.H.S. 20 Benedictine 7

The 1956 edition of the Red 'n White opened its season with a 20-7 triumph over Benedictine of Richmond. The Crabber's veteran line, paced by Co-Captain Kenton Patrick and end Bob Coltrane, held the Cadets in check throughout the game. Co-Captain Dellan Rossman sparked a green backfield, scoring all three touchdowns.

H.H.S. 41 Danville 6

The Crabbers roared past Danville 41-6 to win their second game of the season. Led by tailback Danny Bridges, who scored two touchdowns, and Co-Captain Dellan Rossman, the Crabber offense showed much improvement over the Benedictine game. The Red 'n White's strong defense again held the opponents to one touchdown.

FOOTBALL

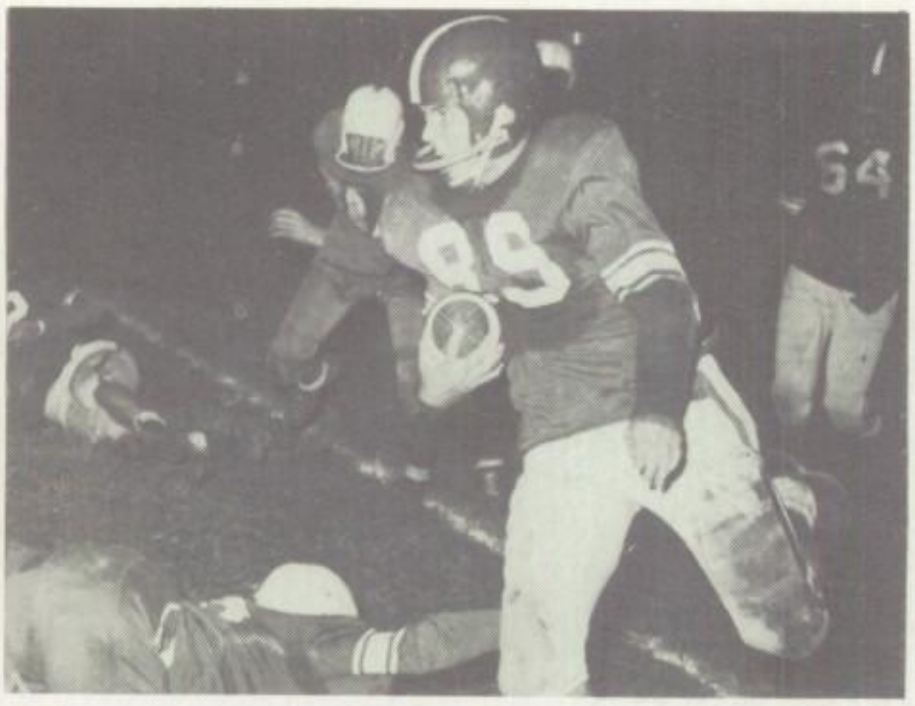
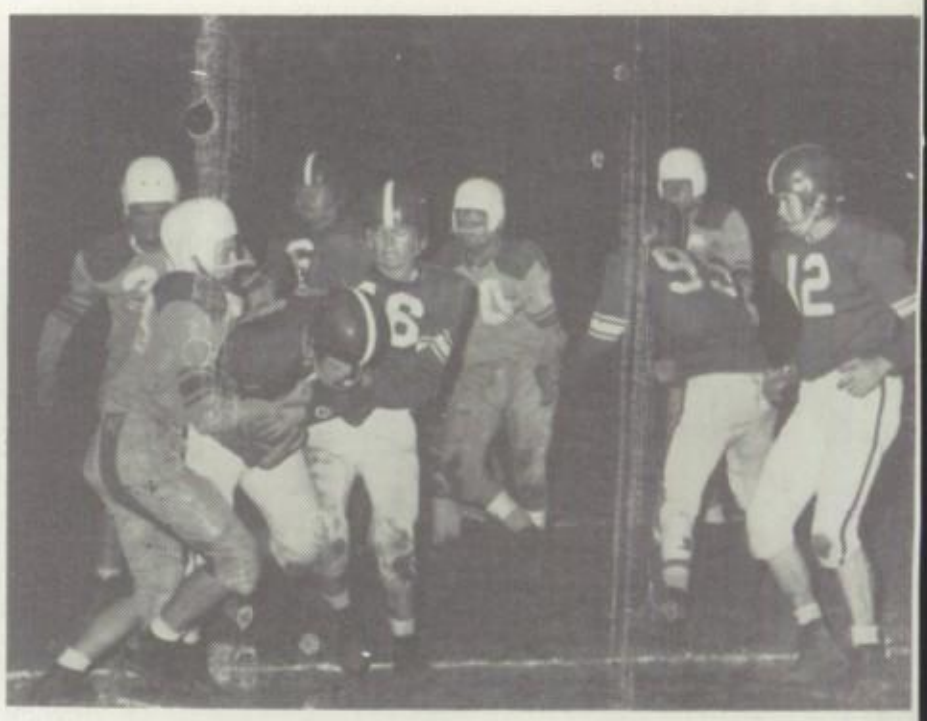
H.H.S. 33 Maury 7

The Red 'n White continued to roll along undefeated by beating Maury of Norfolk 33-7. Danny Bridges and Dellan Rossman were the spark plugs of the Crabber backfield, each scoring a touchdown. Fred Jones, Jimmy Stout, and John Ellerson helped to roll up the score with their touchdowns. The Crabber's rugged line held their opponents to a single touchdown for the third straight week.





H.H.S. 22 Princess Anne 7

Cries of "State Champs" could be heard after the Crabber's fourth victory in a row. The Red 'n White completely out-classed the Cavaliers as the visitor's only touchdown came by virtue of an intercepted pass. Danny Bridges, rapidly developing into a top-flight tailback, scored one touchdown and passed to Rossman and Duchesne for two others.

H.H.S. 26 Halifax 6

Halifax scored first, but after that it was all Hampton. The Red 'n White offense looked sharper than it has all year. With Dellan Rossman and Danny Bridges leading the way, the Crabbers stuck to the ground and controlled the ball most of the game. The Crabber defense tightened up after allowing an 80 yard touchdown run in the first period and held the Comets in check for the rest of the game.

H.H.S. 27 South Norfolk 6

The Red 'n White rolled to its sixth straight win, in the mud and rain. The Crabbers powerful double-wing attack ground out three touchdowns in the first half and racked up one more in the second with reserves playing most of that period. Danny Bridges scored twice and Dellan Rossman and Jimmy Stout each scored once to account for the Crabber's total.

H.H.S. 25 Granby 25

The Crabber's victory string was broken at six by a fired-up band of Granby Blue Comets. The Comets scored a touchdown and made the extra point with less than four minutes to play, to deprive the Red 'n White of its seventh win. Fred Jones, Walter Porter, Dellan Rossman and Danny Bridges all scored for Hampton.

Lots of Luck + Best wishes to a sweet girl. Danny B.

H.H.S. 20 Warwick 25

Attempting to break back into the win column again after the Granby tie, the Crabbers carried a 13-12 lead into the half-time break, but could not hold the Farmers down in the second half. Danny Bridges and Dellan Rossman accounted for all the Red 'n White's scoring with Bridges scoring twice. After the Crabbers had driven deep into Warwick territory in the remaining minutes of the game, victory was snatched away by an intercepted pass. Oh well! Wait'll next year.

THE SQUAD

H.H.S. 0

Newport News 0

Feeling that the loss to Warwick was due to a slack up in the Crabber defense, a determined Red 'n White eleven went into the Turkey Day game fired-up to stop the Typhoons. Determined not to let Hampton tie the series with a win, the Typhoons were successful in stopping the bull-like charges of Danny Bridges just short of a touchdown in the last quarter. Although he tried his best, Rossman's injury wouldn't let him run well enough to play his usual outstanding game. This contest will go down on record as a battle of the defenses.

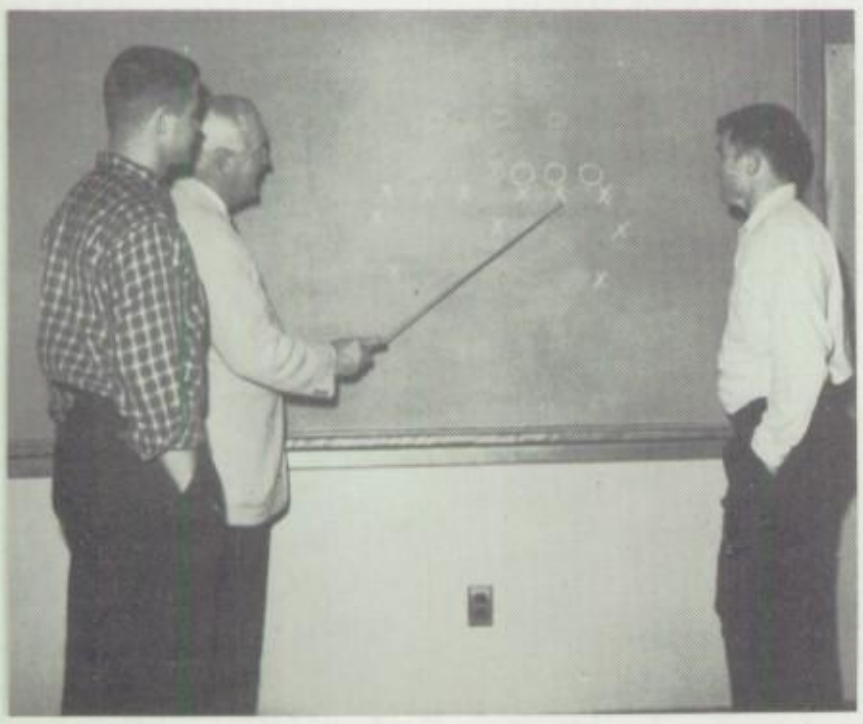
SHERMAN

OF 1956



Coached by J. M. "Suey" Eason, the Crabbers posed a great threat in the race for the State Championship. Paced by Fullback Danny Bridges, who was converted from the end position early in the season, and Co-Captain Dellan Rossman, the Red 'n White averaged at least two touchdowns more than their opponents for the first six games. The pass-catching hands of Jimmy Stout, John Ellerson, and Danny Phillips, combined with the running feet of Bud Porter, Fred Jones, Jimmy Taylor, and David Edwards helped to pile up 214 points for Hampton as compared to 89 for the opponents. This was made possible by the non-yielding Hampton defense who gave up only one touchdown to each of the conquered foes. Co-Captain Kenny Patrick and big Leo (Sulzberger) along with Ashby Lawson, Hal Burch, Eddy Johnson, and Neut Allen helped plug up the holes in the line while ends Bob Coltrane and Lee Yates and back Steve Moore stopped the 'round end plays.

Toward the end of the season, the injuries began catching up with the Crabbers and a great deal of pressure was put on the running guards Jimmy Wilson and Kenny Ferguson and center George Dewhirst to block out the opposing players. After a hard fought battle with Granby, the game finally ended in a tie and the next game was a heart-breaker that ended with a defeat from Warwick by a small margin of five points. The Turkey Day Game with Newport News was typical of the many outstanding games of this State's Oldest High School Rivalry and very few were surprised that it could end in a nothing-to-nothing tie.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coached by Ollie Niemela, the Hampton High Cross Country team placed second in the Eastern District Meet held in Norfolk. Hampton also placed third in the State Meet in Richmond, winning a third place cup. This year Charles Spencer broke Ernie Taylor's old school record of 10:06 by running the two mile course in 9:57.5.

BASKETBALL

The 1956-57 Crabber basketball team under the guidance of its new coach, Mike Anastasio, had a reasonably successful season, winding up with a record of twelve wins and eight losses. The Crabbers, with Gene Wilson and Jim Hathaway controlling the backboards and Paul Cowley, Billy Fulford and Johnny Nicholas turning in sparkling floor games, were in a challenging position up to the February graduations.

The graduation of Wilson and Hathaway, along with the injury of Paul Cowley, sent the Crabbers into a tailspin during which they lost six straight games before ending the season with a victory over Princess Anne.

Even with the losses, the Red 'n White finished in fourth place and headed across the river to Portsmouth for the District Tournament where they dumped Maury before dropping games to Newport News and Warwick.

The highlight of the season was Paul Cowley's record-breaking 34 points against South Norfolk. Cowley also led the team in scoring with an average of 18.8. Next in line for the Crabbers were Wilson (14.1), Fulford (11.3), Nicholas (9.1), and Hathaway (8.1).

Looking forward to next year, the Crabbers should do well with such returnees as Nicholas, Fulford, Jimmy Allen, John Ellerson, Norman Wallace, and Danny Bridges.

The J.V.'s Don Shepherd and Bobby Croft should also prove a great aid.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

In the last three years, the Crabberettes (for two years coached by Peggy Fardette and this year by Peggy Greenwood) have dropped only one game (the first of the season three years ago) in forty-five. This year the Crabberettes were ably led by Co-Captain Gail Getzell, whose scoring average for the past two years is 25.9, and Etha Deem, the team's second highest scorer with an average of 16.8. Hampton won the Girls' Basketball Tournament for the third straight year which enabled them to keep the trophy.

Seniors

As we leave the Krabba Special we have completed our stay at Hampton High and look forward to the opportunities which the future holds for us as adult men and women.

TO THE SENIORS:

It is with a mixture of pride, affection, hope, and a tinge of sadness that I bid farewell to you who have reached your launching point. Your years here have laid the keel and outfitted you with the equipment for what we trust will be a happy, successful, and useful voyage through life for each one of you. You will follow different courses, your seas will not always be smooth, but whatever your goal, may you pursue it with steadfastness, courage, and consideration for others, and may humility crown your attainments.

MEMO TO:

the girl who wants an interesting job

You'll find it at the telephone company, where there's a variety of fascinating jobs for alert, capable young women who qualify.

You'll work in pleasant surroundings with many people about your own age . . . receive good pay while learning . . . get regular raises. And you don't need any experience.

Best of all, a telephone job is a satisfying job because you know you're helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

Jewell,
Good luck and best wishes always to one of the sweetest girls I have ever met. you had better come back to school next year and boy do I ever mean that! I have really enjoyed being in your classes this year and hope we get in some more next year. I'm sure you will never forget Shorthand (Mrs Speight). and I know I won't

Love ya!
